

THE SUN HERALD

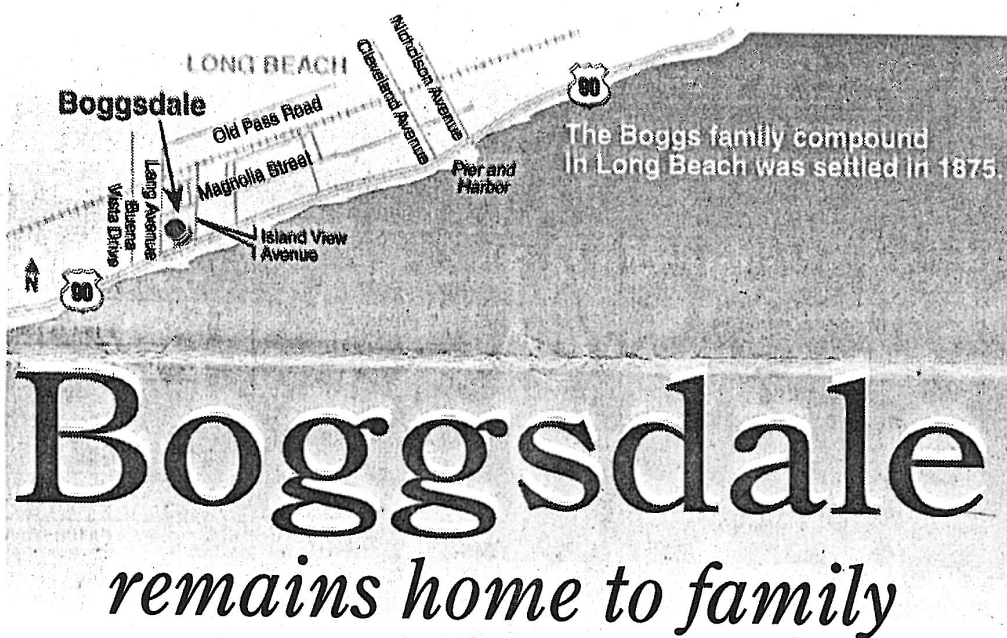

PEOPLE & PLACES

GOT AN IDEA?
FEATURES EDITOR
BETTY ATTAWAY
896-2312
baattaway@sunherald.com

TUESDAY, JANUARY 19, 1999

Four of the six generations of the Morrison family, including 1-year-old Hannah Homes of Slidell, gather in front of the large shoo-fly built by Bill Morrison. Three generations still live on the Boggdsdale property in Long Beach. PHOTOS BY JOHN FITZHUGH/THE SUN HERALD

Boggdsdale remains home to family

By LISA MONTI
THE SUN HERALD

LONG BEACH — In 1875, Robert Boggs, a writer and artist, moved with his family from Mobile to the Coast. He chose a peaceful wooded setting on the beachfront for his new home, which was close to his wife's sister who lived in Pass Christian.

"He selected it because it was so beautiful, with a little stream running through it. It was filled with beautiful trees and virgin pines," said Claire Boggs Morrison, Boggs' granddaughter and a current resident of the property now known as Boggdsdale.

The land has been home to five generations of the Boggs family. Although it is smaller and less wooded than it was when Boggs settled there, its beauty still holds as strong an attraction for his descendants as it did for him.

Morrison's seven children have all returned home to live with their families in a dozen houses throughout the fenced compound situated between South Lang Avenue and Island View.

"They tried their wings and came back home,"

IN THE Neighborhood

moved back 300 or 400 feet to where we are now, thinking we would never have another hurricane," Morrison said.

In 1969, Hurricane Camille destroyed the complex, leaving only one rental property on Magnolia Avenue, a block north of U.S. 90.

Once again the family rebuilt, and Morrison's children gradually started returning to Boggdsdale to build their own homes. Florette Morrison Homes, a social worker; Martha Morrison Gipson, a school counselor; Jo Pepper Morrison Tuepker, a marriage and family therapist; Mary Morrison, a nurse; and Bill Morrison, who manages rental property, live near their mother, siblings and other relatives on the property.

The family has published a brochure with photos and a brief description of their homes that they hand out to friends and visitors. All but Beany's home have been named in a tradition started by founder Robert Boggs who called his home Breezydale.

Claire Morrison's only surviving sibling, Archie Boggs, a judge advocate with the Coast Guard in New Orleans, has a small house on the property.

son said of her 78-year-old brother. "He still adores this place."

Another Morrison brother, the late Congressman Hale Boggs of Louisiana, was planning to build a vacation home on the complex when he disappeared in 1972 on a flight over Alaska. Boggs' widow, Lindy, replaced him in Congress and is now the United States ambassador to the Vatican.

The Boggs' two daughters, ABC News correspondent Cokie Roberts and the late Barbara Sigmund, spent summers in Long Beach with the Morrisons and two other cousins, Archie Boggs' daughter Sally Boggs of New York and Ellie Shoemaker of Pennsylvania, daughter of the late William Boggs.

"We didn't have too many outside playmates because we had each other," said Tuepker of her siblings and cousins.

Cokie Roberts called her summers at Boggdsdale, "a very important part of my life. We had everything we needed right there on the property. The only other thing we'd do is go into Long Beach to the drugstore for cherry phosphates."

Beany said she remembers "playing in the bayou and staying in the woods all day, not coming out until dark; we had so much to do right here."

The three generations who still live on the com-

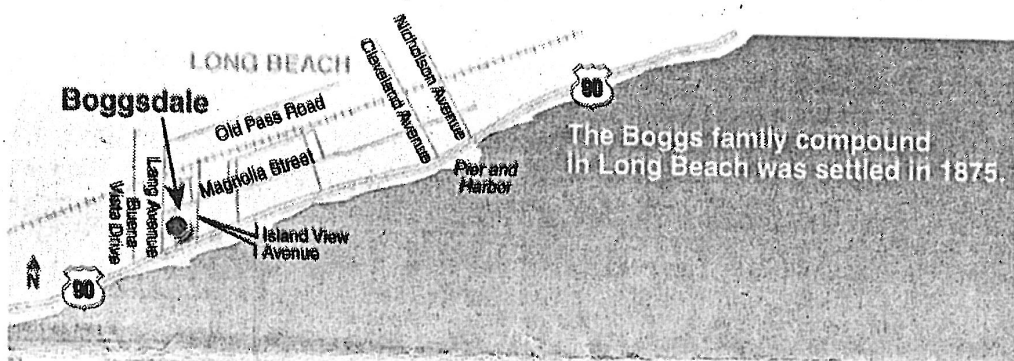

Claire Boggs Morrison is matriarch of the family living at Boggdsdale in Long Beach.

PHOTOS BY JOHN FITZHUGH/THE SUN HERALD

Four of the six generations of the Morrison family, including 1-year-old Hannah Homes of Slidell, gather in front of the large shoo-fly built by Bill Morrison. Three generations still live on the Boggsdale property in Long Beach.

Boggsdale

remains home to family

Claire Boggs Morrison is matriarch of the family living at Boggsdale in Long Beach.

By LISA MONTI

THE SUN HERALD

LONG BEACH — In 1875, Robert Boggs, a writer and artist, moved with his family from Mobile to the Coast. He chose a peaceful wooded setting on the beachfront for his new home, which was close to his wife's sister who lived in Pass Christian.

"He selected it because it was so beautiful, with a little stream running through it. It was filled with beautiful trees and virgin pines," said Claire Boggs Morrison, Boggs' granddaughter and a current resident of the property now known as Boggsdale.

The land has been home to five generations of the Boggs family. Although it is smaller and less wooded than it was when Boggs settled there, its beauty still holds as strong an attraction for his descendants as it did for him.

Morrison's seven children have all returned home to live with their families in a dozen houses throughout the fenced compound situated between South Lang Avenue and Island View.

"They tried their wings and came back home," Morrison said of her two sons and five daughters.

About 20 family members live on either side of the gravel road that runs through their 10-acre enclave. Their homes range from small cottages to larger homes built in varying Southern styles.

Anaise Morrison Beany, an assistant teacher, is the last of Morrison's children to build on the family property.

Before she moved back to Long Beach from California, Beany said, "My friends thought I was nuts to want to live so close to my family. It's hard to explain. It's just a good feeling to be with everyone in the same place."

Robert Morrison, a mortgage banker and the oldest of Claire and the late Stanley Morrison's children, said, "It's always been an extended family situation. My grandmother and grandfather lived with us in a house joined by a common living room."

Claire Morrison, her sister and four brothers were born on the property and grew up there. She moved back from New Orleans in 1947 with her husband and their young family. "We decided this was a good place to be," she said.

The original family home was built

IN THE Neighborhood

moved back 300 or 400 feet to where we are now, thinking we would never have another hurricane," Morrison said.

In 1969, Hurricane Camille destroyed the complex, leaving only one rental property on Magnolia Avenue, a block north of U.S. 90.

Once again the family rebuilt, and Morrison's children gradually started returning to Boggsdale to build their own homes. Florette Morrison Homes, a social worker; Martha Morrison Gipson, a school counselor; Jo Pepper Morrison Tuepker, a marriage and family therapist; Mary Morrison, a nurse; and Bill Morrison, who manages rental property, live near their mother, siblings and other relatives on the property.

The family has published a brochure with photos and a brief description of their homes that they hand out to friends and visitors. All but Beany's home have been named in a tradition started by founder Robert Boggs who called his home Breezydale.

Claire Morrison's only surviving sibling, Archie Boggs, a judge advocate with the Coast Guard in New Orleans, has a weekend home named Breezydale III on the compound next to his son, Charlie. "He's here every long weekend," Morrison said of her 78-year-old brother. "He still adores this place."

Another Morrison brother, the late Congressman Hale Boggs of Louisiana, was planning to build a vacation home on the complex when he disappeared in 1972 on a flight over Alaska. Boggs' widow, Lindy, replaced him in Congress and is now the United States ambassador to the Vatican.

The Boggs' two daughters, ABC News correspondent Cokie Roberts and the late Barbara Sigmond, spent summers in Long Beach with the Morrisons and two other cousins, Archie Boggs' daughter Sally Boggs of New York and Ellie Shoemaker of Pennsylvania, daughter of the late William Boggs.

"We didn't have too many outside playmates because we had each other," said Tuepker of her siblings and cousins.

Cokie Roberts called her summers at Boggsdale, "a very important part of my life. We had everything we needed right there on the property. The only other thing we'd do is go into Long Beach to the drugstore for cherry phosphates."

Beany said she remembers "playing in the bayou and staying in the woods all day, not coming out until dark; we had so much to do right here."

The three generations who still live on the compound have regular get-togethers at Easter, Christmas, Fourth of July and Super Bowl Sunday. Family gatherings at the pool house are common.

"It's still very much of a community as far as relatives and people stopping by," Robert Morrison said. "One of the advantages of all of us being around is that there's always somebody doing something. My mother's house is still the hub for everybody."

Said Tuepker: "What I think is so nice is that we're not competitive. We enjoy each other's successes, and that's to my mother's credit."

Claire Morrison said she enjoys having her children and grandchildren come and go. "Not many families do it," she said. "I hope it stays that way."

The family members obviously enjoy their togetherness but they also appreciate their privacy.

"It's great," Bill Morrison said of living so closely to his siblings. "We stay out of each others' way."

Claire Morrison said the secret to her family's tranquility is simple: "They all have their own roof over their heads."

Pascagoula Public Library
Local History & Genealogical Dept.
Morrison Family

TOPIC: GENEALOGY SURNAMES
TIME: 01/30 11:49 PM

TO: RICHARD MORRISON (MTKN57A)
FROM: DONNA WILLIAMS (JBR630B)
SUBJECT: MORRISON

PASCAGOULA LIBRARY
GENEALOGY COLLECTION
DO NOT CIRCULATE

Richard,

Do you happen to have any information on Malcolm Morrison
(b. 1772 in Scotland, d. 1854 in Bibb Co., AL) married to Elizabeth "Lizzie" Williams (b. 1786 in NC). He migrated to America around 1802; naturalized on Sept. 20, 1813 in Richmond Co., NC. He seems to have children born in GA, AL
MS and FL. They obviously moved around a lot before settling in Bibb Co., AL. I feel like he may have had a brother or cousin named Norman Morrison b. 1765 in Scotland, immigrated the same time and lived in Richmond Co., NC at the same time as Malcolm (both were farmers).

AR/co.?

Malcolm had the following children: Norman, Elizabeth,
William, Catherine, David, Malcolm, August, Florida, Mary, and Margaret.

Donna in AL

Pascagoula Public Library
Local History & Genealogical Dept.
Morrison Family

.. PRODIGY(R) interactive personal service

02/05/92

6:21 AM

TOPIC: HOMELIFE
GENEALOGY SURNAMES
TIME: 02/04 7:30 AM
TO: PATRICIA EDWARDS (CHCT35B)
FROM: DONNA WILLIAMS (JBR530B)
SUBJECT: MS--SOUTHEASTERN COS.

PASCAGOULA LIBRARY
GENEALOGY COLLECTION
DO NOT CIRCULATE

Pat,

This is in response to your reply to me regarding Malcolm Morrison. The Malcolm Morrison that you noted as living in Greene Co., MS in 1816 could possible be my Malcolm. He had a child born in MS in 1819. I will post his family information for you:

Malcolm "Big Make" Morrison (b. 1772 in Scotland d. 1854 in Bibb Co., AL; married Elizabeth "Lizzie" Williams (b. 1786 in NC d. in Bibb Co., AL. Malcolm migrated to America around 1802; naturalized on Sept 20 1813 in Richmond Co., NC. He married Elizabeth in NC and in 1812 they had two children.

Malcolm and Elizabeth had the following children of which I'm aware:

1) Norman (b. Nov 16 1809 in GA d. Dec 7 1879 in Moundville, AL.) He married Eliza Jane Parizade Taylor on Mar 19 1848.
2) Elizabeth (b. 1819 in MS) married Quincy Arnold on Sep 26 1839 in Perry Co., AL

3) William Morrison (b. 1822 in FL)

4) Catherine (b. 1825 in AL married John Morrison (b.1821 in FL (perhaps a cousin)

5) David Morrison

6) Malcolm Morrison (b. Feb 14 1830 in Greensboro, AL d. Feb 1910 in Hale Co., AL) married Laura N. Kirkley (Kirkland) on Dec 16 1852 in Perry Co., AL.

7) August

8) Florida

9) Mary

10) Margaret

I am descended from Malcolm's daughter Catherine and John Morrison through their son Malcolm (b. Jul 6 1851 in AL d. Feb 27 1904 in Hale Co., AL married Harriet Susan Clements in 1876. Malcolm and Harriet were my gg-grandparents.

... and enter no demand to the net. The trouble seems to be a neighborhood controversy near Mount Pleasant, in Butler County.

Fertilizer Factory.

Another fertilizer factory for Anniston is probable, according to J. H. Privett, of the Jacksonville Fertilizer company, who says that as a result of the increased trade which his company has recently enjoyed in this city the establishment of a separate plant in Anniston to accommodate the local trade is contemplated.

Button Factory at Sheffield.

Sheffield added another to her long list of industries this week when a button factory was put in operation at the old brewery by H. J. Boyer and W. F. Throckmorton. Muscle shell from the Tennessee river is put into button shells and cast to be finished.

Chick with Four Legs.

One of the most interesting curiosities is the chick with four legs and two tails, hatched by A. Jackson, of LaFayette, Ky., and brought to LaFayette. He says that the egg was of Barred Plymouth Rock variety and was not of unusual size.

Strange Hail Shower.

A strange phenomenon is reported to have occurred in a section of Dallas about six miles from Louisville. While a peculiar small cloud, apparently isolated, floated over the section not far south of the home of John T. Bell, a prominent farmer, a shower of hailstones fell so thick and fast that the ground was covered to a depth of five or six inches. The shower was confined to an area thought to have been about two miles square.

Little Boy Bit.

What is feared to have been a mad dog attacked little Charles Lane, Jr., the four-year-old son of Captain Lane of the North Highlands fire department, Birmingham, and bit the child several times on the cheek. The child was sent to Montgomery for treatment at the Pasteur institute. The dog was killed and its head has also been sent to Montgomery in order to ascertain whether or not the animal had been suffering from rabies.

to make. This map shows the location and gives the name of the owner of every foot of land within the town limits.

Alleged Slayer Bound Over.

In a preliminary hearing at Bridgeport, before Justice of the Peace Alley, Ben Holland, who killed a man by the name of Bird at Bridgeport last week, was bound over in the sum of $250. He could not make bond and was brought to Scottsboro and lodged in the county jail.

To Improve College Building.

At an initial meeting of the Oxford School Improvement association Wednesday afternoon, 56 charter members were enrolled and steps were taken for the inauguration of immediate improvements at Oxford College, the auditorium and grounds of which will be put in first class condition.

Pocket Picked; Diamond Taken.

H. L. Green, of Gadsden, employed as a clerk at the Herzberg Loveman store, had his pockets picked in the store. A purse containing a diamond ring valued at $150 was taken. The purse was found a few minutes later in front of the store. No arrests were made.

Murder Case is Disposed of John Langford was indicted, tried, convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of Andy Morrison. The indictment was returned by the grand jury and in the space of 45 minutes the defendant had been arraigned, tried and convicted and sentenced at Greensboro.

The total number of useful domestic animals on the globe is believed to be about 1,500,000,000.

Must Return to Texas.

Caleb Campbell, of Tusculum, who is wanted Texas on charge of and other charges, and who is now out on $1000 bond, will be returned to Texas according to a decision of the supreme court, affirming the decision of Judge O. G. Simpson of Colbert. Campbell was arrested by Sheriff McClesky at the request of Texas officers, but he refused to return to Texas and resisted the requisition of the courts.

Skating Must Stop
Chief of Police Wilsoville, has given notice that the city must stop the skating on the sidewalks time past they have been enjoy this sport without but they will be arrested.

Reprimanded; Killed

Michael Tachoir, aged near Mobile, committed suicide by shooting himself heart with a 32-caliber revolver. His employer reprimanded him and he went home, secured the revolver and killed himself in his home.

Pretty Home I

The residence and small farm of Jack Marlow, who lives on the road, Hartford, were destroyed by fire. Nearly all of the furniture was saved. He carried the residence was one of the best in this section.

Count Ovies D

Count Julian Segund, a commercial commissioner of the United States from Chili and that country at Pittsburg, home of his daughter. He will be in Birmingham.

Son Lay Dead

While George Rohe was on his first base for New Orleans, his son, Arthur, was dead. A telegram received from Frank from Rohe's child died at 6:40 p. m. The Pelican team has wired for the floral design for the funeral.

It is estimated that the number of pigs in the world is about 580,000,000 and of sheep 580,000,000.

Seed Crushers to

The annual meeting of the Cotton Seed Crushers association has been announced for May in Pensacola, Fla. President of Florence, has issued a call for this effect.

William A. Warner, of New Decatur, was acquitted by a federal court of the charge of defrauding the federal treasury of his funds. The jury had the case five hours.

GREENSBORO WATCHMAN.

April 28, 1910.

Quite a number of Greensboro and Hale county people are in Mobile this week attending the meeting of the Confederate Veterans.

Main street in Greensboro has on its spring garb of green. If there is a prettier street to be found anywhere we have never seen it.

The cool weather of the past week caused the young cotton to look sick. In some instances, on very low land, the plant was killed by the frost.

Next Monday the State Democratic primary election will be held. All democrats should go to the polls and vote for the candidates of their choice.

LECTURE ON THE PANAMA CANAL.

On Friday night, May 6th, at 8 o'clock, the editor of The Watchman will, at the solicitation of a number of friends, deliver a lecture in the Greensboro Opera House on the subject of the Panama Canal. All are cordially invited to be present. No admission fee will be charged.

Jim and John Langford, the young men convicted at the session of the circuit court last week—Jim for assault with attempt to murder, and John for the murder of Andy Morrison—were taken to the penitentiary at Wetumpka last Monday, where John will begin serving his life sentence. Jim will be taken to Pratt Mines where he will begin his ten year sentence.

Vote for H. J. Willingham for State Superintendent of Education. It

Hale county should give Walter D. Seed a large majority for Lieutenant Governor. He is our next

The next meeting of the Foot's Circle for the year will be held Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, with Mrs. L. J. Lawson, Jr. A full attendance is desired.

C. Brooks Smith of Laneyville, Hale county, is a candidate for State Auditor. Vote for him at the primary next Monday. It Memorial Day was appropriately observed in Greensboro last Tuesday. Quite a number of people assembled at the court house at 3.30 o'clock, and listened to an interesting address by Dr. S. M. Hosmer. Capt. Knight presided. Music was furnished by the college young men. Crosses of honor were bestowed by the president of the memorial association, Mrs. Mary G. Pickens. After the exercises in the court house the ladies repaired to the cemetery where the graves of the soldiers were decorated with flowers.

A MUSICAL.

On last Saturday evening, at the home of Dr. R. J. Griffin at Moundville, a few of the young people entertained their friends and parents at a Musical. The program, which consisted of eleven numbers, was rendered with great ease and grace.

Those who took part in the musical were Misses Ruth and Grace Griffin, Lottis Howell, Marie Griffin and Willie Belle Tidmore.

C.

Red Cedar Flakes keep out moths. 10c at Stollenwerck's.

The cotton firm of Knight, Yancey & Co., with headquarters at Decatur, Ala., failed a few days ago, and much crookedness is surmised in regard to the methods pursued by the firm. The failure is said to be for nearly or quite $7,000,000. European cotton houses are hurt worse than any other concerns.

Mrs. Fannie E. Jones died at her home in Greensboro on April 24th, at an advanced age. She had been ill for some weeks past, and her death was not unexpected. Mrs. Jones came to Greensboro

PERSONAL.

Miss Addie Murphy is visiting in St. Paul, Minn.

Mr. H. T. Waller has returned home from a visit to his son, Syd Waller, in San Pedro, Honduras.

Mrs. H. H. Hooten and M. Perine Rayol are visiting relatives in Mobile.

Miss Alberta Overstreet, who taught school in Dallas county last past session, is at home.

Messrs. R. D. Evans, T. T. M. W. G. Britton, R. E. Perry, Ch. Stollenwerck, N. L. Castlem and Alex Sledge, Sr., are in Mobile this week.

Mesdames, Orlean Hanna, J. Northrup, W. C. Christian, A. Sledge, Sr., and C. A. Rams and Misses Annie Lawson, Margaret Sledge and Hurloline Ramsey are visiting in Mobile this week.

Mr. Gus Bayol and wife are visiting relatives in Greensboro.

Mr. H. S. Hauner, representing the Southern Bell Telephone Company is on a business trip in Greensboro.

Vote for H. J. Willingham for State Superintendent of Education.

Hon. Emmet O'Neal, candidate for Governor, spoke in the court house at Greensboro last Thursday at 12 o'clock to a good audience. He made a pretty fair amendment speech, and expended much time in belaboring that corpse. If his cause was benefited we are in ignorance of the fact.

C. Brooks Smith of Laneyville, Hale county, has had much experience in the Auditor's office at Montgomery and is well qualified to become head of the department. Vote for him next Monday.

ITEMS FROM POWERS.

On the 6th of May, at the Powers school house, there will be an ice cream supper for the benefit of the school. Everybody invited to attend.

Miss Findlay is visiting at Cuba. Miss Lounette Gayle is visiting Mrs. Wm Findlay at Powers.

Mr and Mrs W. M. Rosser of

GREENSBORO WATCHMAN.

April 21, 1910.

The Banks in Greensboro will be closed next Tuesday on account of Memorial Day.

Rev. John Wilner of Ensley will preach in the Presbyterian church here next Sunday, the 24th.

Next Tuesday, April 26th, is Memorial Day. It will be appropriately celebrated in Greensboro.

The Hale County Farmers Union will hold an important meeting in Greensboro next Saturday, April 23d. A large attendance is requested and expected.

Nice rains have fallen during the past week, which were of much benefit to the farmers and gardeners.

The Fire Company and the high school boys played a game of baseball on the University campus a few afternoons ago. The score was 6 to 5 in favor of the fire ladies.

The members of the James D. Webb Chapter U. D. C., are requested to meet at the home of their president on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Business of importance to be attended to.

The weather has been quite cool for several days, the mercury falling to 44 degrees above zero on the mornings of the 19th and 20th. There was no frost of consequence, though tender vegetation was made to look sick.

Thursday morning there was a light frost, the mercury being 40.

We are overstocked on Golden Dent seed corn. Will sell quantities at cost.

Jackson's Drug Store.

There will be a basket picnic at Flatwoods church near Wedgworth station on Friday, April 29th. Everybody invited to come and bring a basket.

One week from next Monday the primary for the nomination of State and county officials will be held. Then we shall have a rest of a year or two from political strife and turmoil, which will be most heartily welcomed by all.

The school of Miss Mabel Wilson in Beat No. 10, near the home of Mr. C. W. Torry, last Friday night gave a concert, which was largely attended, and was enjoyed by all. Those taking part in the entertainment reflected much credit upon themselves, as well as upon their most efficient instructor. Miss Wilson is a graduate of the University of Alabama.

LANGFORD PLEADS GUILTY.

John Langford, the 16-year old white boy who was in jail charged with the murder of Andy Morrison, a respected and well to-do farmer, in Beat No. 11, on the 6th of April, was indicted by the grand jury for murder in the first degree, and on Tuesday of this week entered a plea of guilty as charged and was sentenced to the penitentiary for life. The grand jury in returning the indictment recommended the punishment of life imprisonment on account of the youthfulness of the prisoner. Langford went before the grand jury before he was indicted and made a full confession of the crime.

The murder for which young Langford is to serve a life sentence was an atrocious one. He laid in wait on the roadside for his victim, and when in about a dozen steps of Morrison fired on him with a single-barrel shot gun loaded with slugs and small shot. Morrison's arm was broken above the elbow, and a number of shot entered his body. He lingered several days in terrible agony, when death came to his relief. So far as is known to the public, no motive has been given for the crime, although Morrison, before his death, stated that while he did not see who it was that shot him, yet he believed it was Langford, as the boy had threatened his life because he had forbidden him to visit his daughter.

The dispensation of justice in this instance is one of the quickest and most orderly on record. In less than two weeks after the commission of the crime, and within forty minutes after the return of the indictment, the prisoner was sentenced for life to the penitentiary. It is sure to have a most wholesome effect upon evil doers in Hale county.

Jim Langford, a brother of John Langford, a boy of 18 years of age, at this term of the court also plead guilty in two cases—one charging him with grand larceny, for which he was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary—and the other for assault with attempt to murder Mr. John M. George and a negro about a year ago, both of whom he shot from ambush. A sentence of five years was also imposed for this crime.

LADIES: You can get the Genuine Ostermoor Mattress at my store.

P. F. OSBORN.

The Annist in College base ball

PERSONAL.

Miss Wilkins of Demopolis, is the guest of Mrs. R. Inge.

Mr. Joe Lambert returned to Greensboro a few days ago from a business trip of several weeks to Florida.

Mrs. F. L. Pettus of Selma, is visiting her daughter, Miss Alice Pettus, in Greensboro.

Rev. J. P. Anderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Gadsden, spent yesterday in Greensboro as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Osborn.

Mrs. George Erwin and Mrs. Annie Stollenwerk have returned home from a visit to Jacksonville, Fla.

Mrs. Mabel Powers Taylor and Mrs. C. Burton Powers are spending a few days in Birmingham with relatives.

Mr. W. T. Kennedy, a candidate for State Auditor, visited Greensboro Tuesday.

Mrs. E. W. deGraffenried, Mrs. C. C. Seed, Jr., and Mrs. E. L. Kimbrough, who have been touring Old Mexico for some time, have returned to Greensboro.

Miss Emma Boardman, who has been a missionary at Hang Chow, China, for many years past, will arrive in Greensboro to-morrow to visit her sisters. Her many friends here will be glad to welcome her home again.

Miss Hallie B. McMillian, accompanied by Misses Louise Lambert, Dorothy McFaddin, Ruth Andrews, Mary Lawson and Margaret Jones of her music class, are in Birmingham to attend the musical entertainment given by the famous musician Damrosch.

NEW THINGS THIS WEEK.

1000 yards of the new Val Lace in the 5c box. New Irish Crochet Lace 5 and 10c. Big lot linen Pongee, 40c value at 25c. Ladies red patent leather belts and ladies black patent leather belts at 50c to $1.50, are the fad. New net and lace bows and Jabots, 15c to 55c, in great variety. Silk gloves in black and colors. The "Chamoisette" gloves at 50 cents. Come see and buy.

GULLEY & CHRISTIAN.

NOTICE.

The members of Camp Allen C. Jones, U. C. V., are requested to meet in Greensboro on Memorial Day, April 26th.

W. G. BRITTON, Com.
Wm. N. Knight, Adjt.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Next Tuesday, April 26th, will be memorial day. Appropriate exercises will be held at the court house at 3.30 o'clock, after which all will march to the cemetery and place flowers on the soldiers graves. Following is the program: Prayer—Rev. A. H. Moore. Roll Call—Capt. W. N. Knight.

My ship is in
Now I need it
by giving me a fit
W

Announce

FOR PROBATE

We are authorizing Judge W. C. Childs for Probate county, subject to the democratic primary.

We are authorizing Hon. Charles E. candidate for Probate Hale county, subject to the democratic primary.

FOR SH

We are authorizing Mr. Wm. MARTIN for the office of county, subject to the Democratic primary.

We are authorizing MR. J. R. BECK for Sheriff of Hale county, subject to the action of primary.

We are authorizing MR. DAVID MIL date for Sheriff of Hale county, subject to the action of democratic primary.

FOR CIRCUIT

We are authorizing MR. CAD GARRI date for re-election Circuit Clerk of Hale county, subject to the action of democratic primary.

FOR CHANCELLER SOUTHWEST CERY DU

I hereby announce candidate for re-office of Chancellor western Chancery State of Alabama. action of the Democratic Party, May 2nd, 1910.

THOS

FOR THE SENATE 32ND SENATORIAL

We are authorizing Hon. A. M. Tamm date for the Senate Senatorial District the Counties of Hale county, subject to the action of democratic Primary.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

I hereby announce candidate for representative Hale County in the Alabama, subject to the democratic Primary, May 11, G

We are authorizing Mr. W. H. KNIGHT for Representative house of the Legislature, subject to the democratic primary.

We are authorizing Capt. C. C. GEWIN for the Legislature action of the democratic

FOR CIRCUIT

GREENSBORO WATCHMAN.

April 14, 1910.

Regular meeting of the Greensboro Masonic Lodge will be held next Tuesday night.

The residence of Dr. Turk at Gallion was destroyed by fire last Saturday morning. Loss estimated at about $4,000.00. Insurance $2,000.00.

Mr. John Erwin is furnishing this market with strawberries of fine quality from his farm in Greensboro. He is a most successful truck gardener.

The farmers have their lands in splendid condition for the present crop. The weather has been unusually favorable for the preparation of the soil, and has been taken advantage of.

Hon. John A. Rogers of Gainesville, spoke in the court house at Greensboro last Monday morning in the interest of the candidacy of Hon. Emmet O'Neal for Governor. There was a good crowd present, and strict attention was given his address. He is a fine speaker, and was listened to with interest. His speech was free from abuse of those who do not see things as he sees them, and was chaste and learned.

The base ball team of the A. & M. College of Starkville, Miss., was in Greensboro this week and played three games with the Southern University team. The first game resulted in a score of 14 to 6 in favor of Mississippi; second game, 7 to 0 in favor of the visitors, and the third game 3 to 2 in favor of Southern University.

Americans like to laugh, and this fact is not overlooked by the Shubert Symphony Club. Several numbers on their program, as well as all their encores, are full of fun, and you will be highly entertained by their program on

ANDREW MORRISON ASSASSINATED.

On last Thursday morning, April 7th, at about 10 o'clock, Mr. Andrew Morrison, a respected farmer of Beat No. 11, was waylaid and fatally shot by some person who had concealed himself on the side of the road. Mr. Morrison was on his way home from a neighbor's house, and was going to his home near the Valley church and was leisurely walking along in what is called a "settlement road," and when in about a quarter of a mile from his house some person hidden on the roadside fired upon him at close range—the actual distance said to have been 13 steps. Four or more buck shot and numbers of squirrel shot took effect in Mr. Morrison's body. One buckshot entered his breast, and could not be located, and several other shot entered the body. The wounded man ran to the nearest house as fast as his condition would admit, and reported the matter. Medical aid was at once summoned, and Dr. Tidmore at once saw the desperate condition of Mr. Morrison. All was done that was possible for the sufferer, but he died the following Saturday morning. The burial took place at Springfield church on Sunday, funeral services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Wiggins of Bibb county. There was a very large crowd in attendance to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of deceased.

"Andy" Morrison was a good citizen, a hard-working, industrious and prosperous farmer, and his death is much regretted.

John Langford, a young white boy about 18 years of age, has been arrested and placed in jail charged with the assassination. The grand jury is in session this week and will investigate the matter thoroughly.

MANY A LAUGH.

Pleasing the people has been a trade with the Shubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette for many years and their program

PERSONAL.

Dr. and Mrs. Lee Jones are visiting Greensboro relatives.

Mr. George Findlay has returned from a visit to Mobile.

Congressman R. P. Hobson was circulating among his Greensboro friends the first of the week.

Mr. J. H. Ball of West End, attended court in Greensboro the first of the week.

Mrs. Dunlap of Oklahoma, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Waiton, in Greensboro.

Mr. George P. Hull, a very prominent citizen of Tuxedo Park, New York, has been the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Richmond P. Hobson, in Greensboro during the past week.

The many friends of Judge B. M. Miller and Solicitor J. F. Thompson are glad to have them with them this week. These two most able and excellent public officials always receive a most cordial welcome to Greensboro.

Hon. Kyle B. Price of Elba, was in Greensboro yesterday in the interest of his candidacy for railroad commissioner. He delivered a speech in the court house that day, which was much enjoyed by those present. He is a splendid speaker.

A CARD.

I do heartily thank my friends, both white and colored, for their efforts in saving my things in my tailor shop during the recent fire.

R. M. JORDAN.

NO REASON FOR DOUBT.

A Statement of Facts Backed by a Strong Guarantee.

We guarantee immediate and positive relief to all sufferers from constipation. In every case where our remedy fails to do this we will supply it free. That's a frank statement of facts, and we want you to substantiate them at our risk.

Rexall Orderlies are a gentle, effective, dependable and safe bowel regulator, strengthener and tonic, that are eaten like candy. They reestablish nature's function in a quiet, easy way. They do not cause any inconvenience, griping or nausea. They are so pleasant to take, and work so easily, that they may be taken by any one at any time. They thoroughly tone up the whole system to healthy activity. They have a most beneficial action upon the liver.

My Now I
by givin

AN

FOR

We ar
Judge W
didate f
countv,
the dem

We ar
Hon. J
candida
Hale co
tion of t

We ar
Mr. W for the county.
the Dem

We a
MR. J. for She to the primary

We a
MR. D.
date fo
subject ocratic

FC

We a
MR. C.
date fo
Circuit
ject to cratic

FOR C
SOI

I he candid office a western State c action
May 21

FOR J
32ND S

We
Hon. J
date fo
Senate
the Co
subjec
ocratic

FO

I he

Also See:

- 1. The Descentants of George Gunn 1750*